Event Report

The Civil Engineering Students' Association (CESA) of the Department of Civil Engineering organized a Motivational Speech on 20 July 2026 in the Civil Engineering Department Seminar Hall to commemorate the Birth Anniversary of Late Ajit Dada Pawar. The programme was coordinated by Dr. N. T. Suryawanshi and attended by a large number of Civil Engineering students and faculty members.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome by Prof. Ms. Pallavi Bokey, Faculty In-charge of CESA, who served as the host (Master of Ceremonies) for the event. She introduced the distinguished speaker, Mr. Manoj Wable, President of Shabd Dhan Social Foundation, and briefed the audience about the objectives, activities, and various initiatives undertaken by the Civil Engineering Students' Association (CESA) for the overall development of students.

Dr. N. T. Suryawanshi and Dr. G. N. Narule felicitated the chief guest, Mr. Manoj Wable, as a mark of appreciation for accepting the invitation and sharing his valuable insights with the students.

During his inspiring address, Mr. Manoj Wable highlighted the remarkable personality, visionary leadership, dedication to society, and exemplary qualities of Late Ajit Dada Pawar. He encouraged students to imbibe these qualities in their personal and professional lives and emphasized the importance of discipline, commitment, integrity, positive thinking, and social responsibility.

The speaker motivated students to develop self-confidence, perseverance, leadership qualities, effective communication skills, and a lifelong learning attitude. Through practical examples and motivational experiences, he inspired the audience to overcome challenges, pursue excellence, and contribute meaningfully to society as responsible engineers.
