The Electrical Students Association (ELESA) of Vidya Pratishthan’s Kamalnayan Bajaj Institute of Engineering and Technology, Baramati, organized an expert lecture on the "Solar Rooftop Sarvodaya Scheme of MSEDCL for Sustainable Energy" on 7th February 2024.

The lecture aimed to educate students about the Solar Rooftop Sarvodaya Scheme and its importance in promoting sustainable energy practices. The event featured distinguished speakers from MAHADISCOM, Baramati, including Mr. Mhasu Misal, Executive Engineer, Mr. Madhukar Salve, Additional Executive Engineer, and Mr. Pradip Survase, Deputy Executive Engineer, who shared their insights and expertise on the topic.

The coordination of the event was efficiently handled by Mr. S. K. Raskar, Assistant Professor of the Electrical Engineering Department, and Mrs. V. V. Deokate, ELESA Coordinator. Their efforts ensured the smooth execution of the lecture.

Special thanks were extended to Mrs. P. N. Jaiswal, Head of the Electrical Engineering Department, and Dr. R. S. Bichkar, Principal of VPKBIET, Baramati, for their valuable support and contribution to the success of the event.

The expert lecture provided attendees with valuable insights into the Solar Rooftop Sarvodaya Scheme, empowering them with knowledge to contribute towards sustainable energy solutions. It fostered an environment of learning and collaboration, aligning with the institute's commitment to academic excellence and societal development.
